

Local Matters.

Sunday Morning, March 4, 1860.

$10 Reward.

We will reward $10 to any person, with sufficient proof to conviction, of every fact adduced in stealing the Appeal from the doors of city hall.

Persons 7, 100.

Trans. — For acceptable New Orleans ex-

change, W. H. Win. J. Wells, news agent of the Memphis and Charleston railroad.

W. H. Wells' attention of merchants and to Verona Co.'s advertisement in

another column.

25.—Rev. Mr. Watson will preach in the

Methodist Street, at 11 o'clock,

a.m., &amp; 5 p.m., Sat. eve.

Bacon's Court.—There were nine delegates before the Recorder yesterday, two

of whom were sent to the chamber.

Court.—The regular monthly meeting of the county court will convene at 11 o'clock, Sat. morn.

Arrer.—Henry Winkler was arrested

yesterday on the charge of stealing a pair of pants from Frank Walker, of North Memphis.

The PEAL.—This elegant new action,

together with Capt. Trivett's, will be on view at the Peal's, 100 Main St., Sat. eve, noon, &amp; 5 p.m.

County Court.—There is no

regular meeting of the court to-morrow

at 11 o'clock, Sat. eve.

Trans.—For acceptable New Orleans ex-

change, W. H. Win. J. Wells, news agent

of the Memphis and Charleston railroad.

W. H. Wells' attention of merchants and

to Verona Co.'s advertisement in

another column.

25.—Rev. Mr. Watson will preach in the

Methodist Street, at 11 o'clock,

a.m., &amp; 5 p.m., Sat. eve.

Bacon's Court.—There were nine delegates before the Recorder yesterday, two

of whom were sent to the chamber.

Court.—The regular monthly

meeting of the county court will convene at 11 o'clock, Sat. morn.

Arrer.—Henry Winkler was arrested

yesterday on the charge of stealing a pair

of pants from Frank Walker, of North Memphis.

The PEAL.—This elegant new action,

together with Capt. Trivett's, will be

on view at the Peal's, 100 Main St., Sat. eve,

noon, &amp; 5 p.m.

County Court.—There is no

regular meeting of the court to-morrow

at 11 o'clock, Sat. eve.

Trans.—For acceptable New Orleans ex-

change, W. H. Win. J. Wells, news agent

of the Memphis and Charleston railroad.

W. H. Wells' attention of merchants and

to Verona Co.'s advertisement in

another column.

25.—Rev. Mr. Watson will preach in the

Methodist Street, at 11 o'clock,

a.m., &amp; 5 p.m., Sat. eve.

Bacon's Court.—There were nine delegates before the Recorder yesterday, two

of whom were sent to the chamber.

Court.—The regular monthly

meeting of the county court will convene at 11 o'clock, Sat. morn.

Arrer.—Henry Winkler was arrested

yesterday on the charge of stealing a pair

of pants from Frank Walker, of North Memphis.

The PEAL.—This elegant new action,

together with Capt. Trivett's, will be

on view at the Peal's, 100 Main St., Sat. eve,

noon, &amp; 5 p.m.

County Court.—There is no

regular meeting of the court to-morrow

at 11 o'clock, Sat. eve.

Trans.—For acceptable New Orleans ex-

change, W. H. Win. J. Wells, news agent

of the Memphis and Charleston railroad.

W. H. Wells' attention of merchants and

to Verona Co.'s advertisement in

another column.

25.—Rev. Mr. Watson will preach in the

Methodist Street, at 11 o'clock,

a.m., &amp; 5 p.m., Sat. eve.

Bacon's Court.—There were nine delegates before the Recorder yesterday, two

of whom were sent to the chamber.

Court.—The regular monthly

meeting of the county court will convene at 11 o'clock, Sat. morn.

Arrer.—Henry Winkler was arrested

yesterday on the charge of stealing a pair

of pants from Frank Walker, of North Memphis.

The PEAL.—This elegant new action,

together with Capt. Trivett's, will be

on view at the Peal's, 100 Main St., Sat. eve,

noon, &amp; 5 p.m.

County Court.—There is no

regular meeting of the court to-morrow

at 11 o'clock, Sat. eve.

Trans.—For acceptable New Orleans ex-

change, W. H. Win. J. Wells, news agent

of the Memphis and Charleston railroad.

W. H. Wells' attention of merchants and

to Verona Co.'s advertisement in

another column.

25.—Rev. Mr. Watson will preach in the

Methodist Street, at 11 o'clock,

a.m., &amp; 5 p.m., Sat. eve.

Bacon's Court.—There were nine delegates before the Recorder yesterday, two

of whom were sent to the chamber.

Court.—The regular monthly

meeting of the county court will convene at 11 o'clock, Sat. morn.

Arrer.—Henry Winkler was arrested

yesterday on the charge of stealing a pair

of pants from Frank Walker, of North Memphis.

The PEAL.—This elegant new action,

together with Capt. Trivett's, will be

on view at the Peal's, 100 Main St., Sat. eve,

noon, &amp; 5 p.m.

County Court.—There is no

regular meeting of the court to-morrow

at 11 o'clock, Sat. eve.

Trans.—For acceptable New Orleans ex-

change, W. H. Win. J. Wells, news agent

of the Memphis and Charleston railroad.

W. H. Wells' attention of merchants and

to Verona Co.'s advertisement in

another column.

25.—Rev. Mr. Watson will preach in the

Methodist Street, at 11 o'clock,

a.m., &amp; 5 p.m., Sat. eve.

Bacon's Court.—There were nine delegates before the Recorder yesterday, two

of whom were sent to the chamber.

Court.—The regular monthly

meeting of the county court will convene at 11 o'clock, Sat. morn.

Arrer.—Henry Winkler was arrested

yesterday on the charge of stealing a pair

of pants from Frank Walker, of North Memphis.

The PEAL.—This elegant new action,

together with Capt. Trivett's, will be

on view at the Peal's, 100 Main St., Sat. eve,

noon, &amp; 5 p.m.

County Court.—There is no

regular meeting of the court to-morrow

at 11 o'clock, Sat. eve.

Trans.—For acceptable New Orleans ex-

change, W. H. Win. J. Wells, news agent

of the Memphis and Charleston railroad.

W. H. Wells' attention of merchants and

to Verona Co.'s advertisement in

another column.

25.—Rev. Mr. Watson will preach in the

Methodist Street, at 11 o'clock,

a.m., &amp; 5 p.m., Sat. eve.

Bacon's Court.—There were nine delegates before the Recorder yesterday, two

of whom were sent to the chamber.

Court.—The regular monthly

meeting of the county court will convene at 11 o'clock, Sat. morn.

Arrer.—Henry Winkler was arrested

yesterday on the charge of stealing a pair

of pants from Frank Walker, of North Memphis.

The PEAL.—This elegant new action,

together with Capt. Trivett's, will be

on view at the Peal's, 100 Main St., Sat. eve,

noon, &amp; 5 p.m.

County Court.—There is no

regular meeting of the court to-morrow

at 11 o'clock, Sat. eve.

Trans.—For acceptable New Orleans ex-

change, W. H. Win. J. Wells, news agent

of the Memphis and Charleston railroad.

W. H. Wells' attention of merchants and

to Verona Co.'s advertisement in

another column.

25.—Rev. Mr. Watson will preach in the

Methodist Street, at 11 o'clock,

a.m., &amp; 5 p.m., Sat. eve.

Bacon's Court.—There were nine delegates before the Recorder yesterday, two

of whom were sent to the chamber.

Court.—The regular monthly

meeting of the county court will convene at 11 o'clock, Sat. morn.

Arrer.—Henry Winkler was arrested

yesterday on the charge of stealing a pair

of pants from Frank Walker, of North Memphis.

The PEAL.—This elegant new action,

together with Capt. Trivett's, will be

on view at the Peal's, 100 Main St., Sat. eve,

noon, &amp; 5 p.m.

County Court.—There is no

regular meeting of the court to-morrow at